Complete the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Privacy Release form. Many agencies will not release information to our office without this form completed:

ICE Privacy Release Form

Dexter has a team of bilingual caseworkers who are able communicate directly with federal agencies to:

- Determine locations of people being detained
- Search, find and submit documentation to federal agencies
- Communicate concerns regarding the treatment of individuals detained
- Request wellness checks for detained individuals

Additional actions Dexter's office can take:

- ICE Oversight: visit ICE Facilities, ask questions, demand answers
- Assist with coordination of legal actions (we do not provide legal representation)
- Elevate important messages regarding due process, Constitutional Rights and others
- Demand answers from leadership of Federal Agencies
- Support "Know your Rights" trainings
- Ensure families of those detained are connected to trusted advocacy groups for support and resources
- Share stories and push back publicly through interviews and social media
- Host and attend public events such as roundtables, and community conversations
- Coordinating and facilitating connections with national advocacy groups, coalitions, and experts
